

Who Cares? 12th Mar 2008

'Who Cares?' gives a snapshot of the Social Responsibility work currently being undertaken in the Diocese of Coventry. Taken together, these caring initiatives across Coventry and Warwickshire and in the wider West Midlands Region make a significant contribution to community well-being. The transformation of communities is a key element in our diocesan strategy and parish life and we can rejoice in the efforts being made by so many to this end. I commend this report to you and ask that you encourage others to read this document, please click here