

Press Release:

ON FIRE MISSION (MIDLANDS)

DAY OF RENEWAL “Walking in the Spirit”

Saturday 27th June 2009
All Saints Church, Emscote, WARWICK
10.15 a.m. – 4.30 p.m.
(Doors open 9.30 a.m. for coffee and welcome)

ON FIRE MISSION is dedicated to spreading the renewal of the Holy Spirit in Christ's Church. We are a firmly Bible-based organisation, having a strong emphasis on scripture through the daily lectionaries and private Bible study; we are also strongly sacramental in our corporate worship. Scripture-reading that is not enlivened by the Holy Spirit is mere words; sacraments, if they are not administered in the power and strength of the Holy Spirit are dead rituals. The release of the Spirit in our lives means receiving more of God's power so that we can glorify his Name through our lives and further the work of his Kingdom through our ministry.

An annual national conference based on these principles has been thriving for over thirty years. Smaller regional conferences have sprung up as offshoots of the national body; this meeting is the first such venture in the Midlands.

We look forward to welcoming Christians of all denominations and traditions. You will find lively worship - including both the sacrament of the Eucharist and informal praise and prayer - Bible-based teaching, and a wide range of “workshop” sessions; and prayer-ministry will be offered both in the context of the Eucharist and towards the end of the day.

A further similar day is planned for October 17th under the title “One in Christ”.
