

The Prayer of Stillness

"In stillness and in staying quiet, there lies your strength".

So wrote the prophet Isaiah (30.15) at God's prompting. The words are just as much for us today as ever they were for God's people long ago. Over-active Christians in a hyperactive Church make a lot of superficial noise, but they are of limited use or influence in a world distracted by speed and consumerism.

In the midst of a turbulent life, God is calling us to be still and to listen to his Word in silence and at depth. To help you to do this, The Fellowship of Contemplative Prayer is arranging a day of silent listening to the Word of God at the Coventry Diocesan Retreat House, Offa House (near Leamington Spa) on

Wednesday 4 November 2009 9.30 to 3.15
