Catalyst Arts

Support Form

Catalyst Arts is an educational organisation that exists to encourage a renaissance in the creative arts. Inspired by the Leith School of Art venture twenty years ago, local artist Ben Ecclestone has seen his inspiration now bear fruit in the creation of Catalyst Arts, a new artistic venture on the Eastbourne cultural scene.

This venture will be costly in time, work, professional expertise and money. We are already making heavy commitments in the first three, and are dependent now upon the vision and generosity of the local community to carry out this first stage of an exciting community project. We ask that you consider making an investment in this, the first project of its kind here in Eastbourne, and ensure that the highest standards of professional skills can be employed to bring about a revival of the arts in our community.
