

Family Hubs, Coventry

What are family hubs?

Family Hubs have been set up across Coventry for children, young people and families who are in need of help and support. The hubs have replaced Children Centres and there are 8 hubs located across the city. The aim of the hubs is to provide early interventions for children, young people and families to prevent them moving towards higher levels of need.

What support and services do they provide?

- Support to children and young people aged 0-19 years (up to 24 years if they have a disability)
- Family support within the home
- Parenting support
- Support to children with special educational needs
- A range of child and family health clinics including baby well clinics
- Support with managing finances

How can you contact the hubs?

Anyone can contact a family hub and this can be:

- By telephone.
- By attending in person - all hubs have a member of staff on duty every day.
- A professional or agency worker making a referral on somebody else's behalf but it must be with the person's consent. This can be done by telephone or by using the 'Request for help form'
- Any other person making a referral on somebody else's behalf but it must be with the person's consent. To access the 'Request for help form' please click on the following link.....

What information will be required by the family hub?

The hub will need specific information when you make contact. Please click on the following link to see what information will be required.....Do not delay the referral if you do not have all of the information to hand as this can be obtained later.
